The Nominations.

We present the nominations made by the Union State Convention held at Eugene. In all Conventions for the nomination of candidates for public office, there must of necessity be concessions and a submission to the will of the majority. That cardinal principle in the Government of our Republic, must be carried out in all conventions. While, therefore, every man may not be satisfied with the selections made for candidates all will recognize the principle of the right of the majority to rule.

Under the circumstances of the case, we are satisfied with the ticket before us. The candidates are competent for the positions for which they have been selected. They will fill the offices, if elected, with credit to themselves and advantage to the State.

Our Government institutions are now being subjected to a severe trial. We shall soon know whether this Nation, in all its grand proportions, will continue to exist. We have among us a large party who sympathize with those who are aiming at its destruction. The coming election in Oregon will decide whether a majority of the people of our State are hostile to our Government and desire to destroy it, or, whether they wish to sustain it as it was handed down to us by our fathers.

A Rich Scene.—When the Secessionists met in the Court House to elect Delegates to the Convention, the venerable Gen. Chapman came in. He was asked to be a delegate. This he declined, but desired to hear the resolutions adopted by the meeting, read. They were read and were intended to commit the party in favor of secession and against the Government. The General thought it a bad plan for a little meeting like that to make a party platform for the Democratic party—and especially did he think it bad policy to place the Democratic party in opposition to the Government, and for himself he would never vote with a party who believed in secession, or a man who was in favor of that principle.

These remarks of Gen. Chapman cut deep; and the resolutions were changed, as we find them published—much to the chagrin of the Secessionists, who are against the Government, and hold to Jos. Lane's declarations, that States have a right, when they chose to secede from the Union.

Coast Fortifications.—On the 19th of February, the bill making appropriations for Fortifications on the Atlantic coast, was taken up in the Senate for consideration. In the remarks made upon this bill, Senators were cautious in avoiding the saying or doing of anything which might be construed as a menace to Foreign Governments. Mr. Fessenden of Maine, however, observed that he had received a note from the Secretary of War, saying that "it was important that the bill should be passed immediately." The bill appropriates $6,785,000. Senator Nesmith secured an amendment to the bill appropriating $100,000 for military works on the Oregon and Washington coast—the money to be expended only when, in the opinion of the President, the Northwest coast, alike with the eastern shore, is menaced by our complications with Foreign Governments.

A. J. Pate, charged with the murder of Geo. Lamb, in Linn county, was tried in Albany on the 10th, found guilty, and on the 11th was sentenced by Judge Boise to be hung on the 27th of May next.

Tyranny.—We notice in the Olympia papers some extraordinary proceedings of a meeting to which were signed the names of fifty-two ladies. W. W. Glasgow, of that place is charged with having for years inflicted upon his wife and children, inhuman treatment from which they have escaped. They denounce him as "a gross tyrant," a being in human form, destitute of the God-given element of decency and humanity, that many coming under the head of the brute creation. Glasgow should take the earliest opportunity to reach the Fiji Islands, where he can probably find sympathisers. He ought to leave immediately.

The Bowling Green "Courier."—The Bowling Green Courier of a late date, says:

Our experience of Louisville having vividly impressed us with the inconvenience resulting from the suppression of the Courier, and not deeming that experiment to be repeated again, we have concluded, after taking into due consideration the exigencies of the case to remove our office, for the present at least to Nashville.

The exigencies of the case have pursued the Courier even to Nashville. Better locate the concern somewhere out of the United States. The Idler used to be a great admirer of the Louisville Courier.

The Clipper Brig Cadmus, 37 years old, and which has been on this coast 35 years—probably the oldest vessel on the Pacific—is engaged in transporting lumber on the Sound.

The New York Herald says, our Paris correspondent says that the rebel agents in Paris have stated that the seceded States will approve of the constitution of a monarchy in the South if it can be attempted with a prospect of success. Mr. Slidell has been in close consultation with Mr. Rost, one of the early commissioners from the South. The Slidell family maintain a pretty strict privacy so far.

This morning's Call has the following Eastern dispatches:

St Louis, March 27th.

P[illegible] mortar fleet sailed from Ship Island on the 14th, for the Southwest Pass (mouth of the Mississippi). On the 17th it stopped at the Pass where the fleet and vessel [illegible] proceeded up the river to attack the fortified approaches to New Orleans.

St Louis, March 28th.

Corinth, Miss., has been strongly fortified and a battle will soon take place. Our scouts have made extensive reconnoissances in the vicinity.

Others who have just report that Fortress Monroe from the Gulf fleet state that the reduction of the forts below New Orleans commenced several days since. There is every prospect that the mortar fleet will succeed.

Orders are on [illegible] have been received by Col Connor to proceed with his regiment, the Third Infantry, to Salt Lake. Three cavalry companies are to accompany the expedition. Their final destination [illegible] still further [illegible] will leave as soon as it can be made ready.

Letter [illegible] Polk County, April 1st 1862.

Editor of the Oregonian:

It is well known that there are thousands of [illegible] in this valley and I think it is high time the people should consider what may be the consequences and [illegible] this mass of decaying flesh be removed from the surface of the ground. Our country is very healthy and there is a reason for it. Some of the most evident causes of sickness we are aware do not exist in this valley. There are no extensive marshes of stagnant water, during the summer season to poison the atmosphere; but what might we reasonably expect the coming summer, if instead of a little rotting vegetation we have immense quantities of rotting flesh upon every section of land in the entire valley?

In passing along the roads since the few warm days, though the decomposition of the carcasses has but partly commenced, I notice that in many places the breeze is already tainted. When the curtain of mist, now checking the rays of the sun, pass off and the warm sultry days come on, unless the carcasses be removed, will not the whole atmosphere be loaded with the stench? Let us imagine what may be the consequence should no attention be taken and the air we breathe from day to day—as it were the breath of life—be thus poisoned! If it should not breed a contagion calculated to sweep thousands into eternity, might it not create such a general sickness as our country has never yet known.

My opinion is that at least it would pay could there be a general movement in that way for the people of each precinct to burn or completely bury all the carcasses within their immediate jurisdiction. Yours &c

DIED:

In Washington County on Saturday, April 12th, George Olds aged 54 years—a well known and valuable citizen of that county.

Rich Scene in the Wheeling Legislature.—The Wheeling Legislature having finished the business for which it [illegible] convened recently, immediately previous to adjournment, the following rather rich proceeding transpired.

Ratcliff offered a resolution proposing to ascertain if the Senate would accept the Ten Commandments without amendment, if first passed by the House. He remarked that no proposition from the House had ever gone to the Senate without coming back amended. He desired, before the adjournment, to submit something that would meet their approbation. The Speaker appointed Ratcliff to communicate the passage of the resolution to the Senate. Ratcliff accordingly picked up the resolution and amid [illegible] laughter, proceeded to the Senate chamber. He soon [illegible] returned and reported to the House that the Senate insisted that there were thirteen Commandments and refused [illegible] to accept the House resolution without amendment!

A Gentleman in Difficulty.—T. Butler King, Commissioner from the State of Georgia [illegible] California, it turns [illegible] so near being captured on board [illegible] that he left his trunks with all his [illegible] papers behind. Among these papers was a letter from a well known banker in London to [illegible] inquiring for the whereabouts of [illegible] King, saying that he had [illegible] a large sum of money which had not been paid, and which claim had been placed in the hands of [illegible]

The [illegible] on the secessionists in Washington [illegible] A late letter from Washington says: The rapid succession of victories produces the highest gratification in all departments of the government. The plans of General McClellan for the suppression of the rebellion are beginning to develop themselves, to the astonishment and delight of the Union men. The rapidity with which the blows directed by him are falling upon rebeldom has made his enemies here look extremely crestfallen. They were staggered by the capture of Fort Henry and the opening of the Tennessee river, astounded by the brilliant success of Burnside, and made utterly desperate by the news today from Missouri and Fort Donelson.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

Sacramento street, below Montgomery, Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late Lecturer on Diseases of the [illegible] Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—from 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise, FREE.

Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all Diseases, the Greatest Cause, Springs from neglect of Nature's Laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus' Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities, and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or [illegible]. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. [illegible] are among the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of [illegible], and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health; for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice, and sanctioned by thousands of [illegible] cures. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State of Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the [illegible] of disease, who, having recovered their former health, [illegible] as a [illegible] their cases and [illegible], and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. [illegible] publicity, and we commend their perusal to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious habits of [illegible] passion in youth, depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians—who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas! after a few weeks, and in some instances months of their treatment, I found to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief [illegible] symptoms [illegible] more alarming in their torture, and being told by one that my disease [illegible] principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who after examining my case, prescribed some medicines, which almost instantly relieved me [illegible] pains in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my mind became clear, and all my ideas collected, the constant pains in my back and groins, the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study and want of resolution, the frightful exciting and at times pleasurable dreams at night followed by involuntary discharges have all disappeared, and in fact in two months after having consulted the doctor I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks I deem it my duty to give this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical help, being assured by my own experience, that [illegible] under his treatment a radical and permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. FILLMORE.

State of California, County of San Francisco:

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April A. D. 1861. Signed,

[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE, June 20, 1[illegible]

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco—Sir, I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more, as I feel very well except that I have not [illegible] my strength yet, but soon will with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks you may recollect, since I called on you at the time, with my constitution as I thought, broken entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do as you said, to ease the pain in my back and head and strengthen my nerves so that I would not get excited and tremble at every trifle. Now that you know what I expected, you may imagine my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat, and the catarrh, [illegible] of those causes which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having all my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

I enclose I send you twenty dollars over your charge, as I think myself richly cured. If you think anybody will be benefited you may put this letter in the newspapers. I remain gratefully yours,

THOMAS HAYDEN

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my [illegible], I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves recording, not only as an act of scientific skill, but of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly, and [illegible] consequences unknown to me, was seized with a fit of [illegible], which owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the [illegible] apprehensions which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of all physicians. I was frequently while in pursuit of my [illegible] thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning and [illegible] liable to the agonies, I yet [illegible]. All [illegible] made my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as [illegible] and who sought to prolong the existence of my [illegible]. While in this state and having previous to my [illegible] lost [illegible] once more was induced to [illegible] seek the aid of a physician, and by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and I could not [illegible] his services; regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to [illegible] health. I would here avow for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet must [illegible] my indebtedness, I could [illegible] but to myself, and feel obligated to make the case public, so that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
